The parties, through the Defendant Acting Commissioner of Social Security, hereby request an extension of time of thirty days from the present date, until November 20, 2023, for Defendant to prepare and file the Answer and Certified Administrative Record. This is the Commissioner's first request for an extension.

The Commissioner notes that the present request is untimely. It appears that there were service issues and, once resolved, Defendant counsel's office did not receive notice or otherwise missed said notice. Counsel learned of the present case on the same date as the drafting of this

1 Stipulation. Defendant must prepare the Certified Administrative Record, and is taking steps to
2 have this completed and filed as soon as possible.
